of struggling...

This was the year . . . a year which can only be adequately described in the following way, as Rogues 'n Rascals presents:

the game of

START HERE

Pretend you're a Pub Board member. You've worked hard and there's a several-thousand-dollar surplus in your budget. Watch it go to cover a deficit in the Union budget. Move back two spaces.

Pretend you're a member of any campus organization. Watch the Legislature members turn down your financial requests because they don't have enough money to use to play Monopoly. Move back two spaces.

Pretend you're editor of Sanskrit. Have all of your work paralyzed while your student superiors revoke your charter and decide whether or not they'll allow you to publish your magazine. Move back three spaces.

Pretend you're a resident of Moore Hall. Fish some money out of your pocket to pay for a broken elevator. Move back one space.

FINISH HERE

(but only if you cheated)

Pretend you're a guy, nineteen years old, with a draft number of 2. Move back four spaces.

Pretend you're a cheerleader. Get shot down financially by the Legislature and verbally by the newspaper. Move back two spaces.

the year, 1971-72

Try your luck . . . cut out your head in the classes section to use as a token, find some dice to roll, and see if you can get farther than the yearbook did . . .

Pretend you're editor of the Journal. Get scolded by mommies and daddies who don't want their 21-year olds reading your lascivious newspaper. Move back three spaces.

Pretend you're a yearbook editor. Your request for necessary funds is turned down, then approved, by the Legislature. Then the yearbook is investigated (without consulting you) by SGA Pres. and friend, and the money allocation is vetoed. Move back two spaces.

Pretend you have long hair. Go to the Coliseum to see Graham and Nixon. Get thrown out. Move back four spaces.

Pretend you're a basketball player and at half-time the team is tied with the #10 team in the nation. The team loses by 20 points. You lose three spaces.

Pretend you're at registration. Lose six hours standing in lines and six spaces here.

Pretend you're a faculty member. Lose your job. Move back six spaces.

Pretend you're a dorm resident. Eat SAGA food. Move back two spaces.

Pretend you've been elected SGA President. Suddenly, you're no longer SGA President. Move back four spaces.

Pretend you're looking forward to a JAM-UP week-end of sun, booze, friends, music, and a picnic in the amphitheatre. Watch it rain. Move back one space.

Ann Kinds says she is Chi Phi's Sweetheart. And who would argue with a face like that?

We Are Talking about Space Between Us All

As we grow to and within this formal school
the school of life teaches that we should come together.
The space between us shrinks into a brotherhood.

We Call It XΦ . . .

We glimpse the truth, band together, and open wide our door

Rush In, To Enter . . .

Understand fraternity and replace the word for our belief
Chi Phi dash only a rally point.
True brotherhood comes from within each of us jointly.

Never from a Conforming Mold . . .

We strive for truth and goodness.
To find love is to unlock the door and gain the world.

Brotherhood Is Its Key . . .

See beyond yourself, neighbor-brother
Can you see Chi Phi?
Are you one of them?

the varsity . . .

Despite the 13-12 season, two new records were set this season. A new team high in the number of points scored in a game was reached February 21 against Florida Tech when 120 points were scored. Robert Earl Blue set a new individual record when he scored 37 points against Tusculum on December 1. Blue was a major force this year as a sophomore, placing an average of 21.6 points per game for a total of 540 points for the season. This year's seniors are Chris Black, Jerry Boggs, Norris Dae, Terry Sloan, and Harold Thames. Other team members are Blue, Rick Dobson, Richard Guffy, Derek Jones, Marshall Thaxton, and Lee Wilson. The Varsity Manager is Ron Swain.

coach bill foster . . .

As can be seen by these pages, Coach Foster is a man of many faces. This season he led his team to a 13-12 season against several tough teams, including nationally ranked Marshall. This record fails to show the true story, as fifteen strategically placed points could have made the statistics record read 18-7. Coach Foster led the UNCC cagers into their first year in the University Division NCAA program as an Independent. He has initiated an active recruiting program, attracting players not only from high schools, but also junior colleges. His staff consists of Associate Coach Bill Moore, Assistant Coaches Joe Kingery and Dwight Rainey, and Trainer Lewis Middleton.

varsitycheer

This year's varsity cheerleaders are: Robert Lark, Bill McGill, James Cuthbertson, Fish Foster, Patty Gray (chief), Vicky Rowe, Annie Howell, Koko Knight, Dot Burgess, and Dick Prasser. Alternates are Steve Reavis and Carol Solomon.

They lead the student body et. al., despite fire, criticism, sleet, hail, and/or gloom of night.

The Freshman Team, consisting of Ben Ansley, Will Barnes, Geoff Bommer, Rick Haneberg, Greg Ortiz, Dave Poling, and Tommy Whitten, compiled a 18-6 record this season. Bommer pumped in 529 points this season for a 22.0 point per-game average. This group should provide some important replacements for Seniors leaving the Varsity.

After one year of inactivity, the wrestling team came back on the scene this year. This season, with only five men or half of a team, they compiled a 6-2-1 win-loss record excluding forfeits. However, with only half a team, the wrestlers were forced to forfeit approximately 30 points per match, leaving the official win-loss record at 0-9. The team was also plagued by injuries in the NCAA Regionals, where Garry Scotty received injured ribs and Francis Boles separated his shoulder in the first match. Next year, Young, Akers, and Boles return to the team.

Right: Finishing a fireman's carry, Francis Boles takes his opponent to the mat, leading to one of his seven straight pins.

Below: Members of the team try new methods of treating backache during practice.

What's the best thing you can say about four great brews?

THAT THEY'RE MADE BY THE JOS. SCHLITZ BREWING COMPANY.

We're 122 years old now . . . past the age of experimentation; well into the age of tradition.

When we put our name on a package, we're betting our reputation on what's inside. And we'll give you odds.

To all book reviewers, literary critics, and anyone else who will immediately snatch up this yearbook and begin to tear it apart, criticizing its lack of news coverage, literary values, and artistic beauty: Don't try. We didn't attempt for it to be comprehensively complete in news, literarily perfect, or artistically beautiful. If you recall our first statement here, we referred to this publication as a yearbook, and that's exactly what it is . . . a book of the year, 1971-72 . . . the year that was.

If you're looking for a grammatically perfect essay, you won't find it here, but you might try an English book. If you're looking for deep meaning behind the pictures, better switch to the pictures in an art gallery. If you're looking for the details of the Jordan incident, refer to the Journal. But if you're looking for a memory, we sincerely hope you'll find one or two here. Because, even if it is old-fashioned, that's the sole purpose of this entire book: to provide memories.

This isn't an apology at all; it's just a simple statement of what we've tried to do in the 1972 Rogues 'n Rascals.

Thanks for your consideration.

And while we're saying thank you, we want to say a special thanks to those staff members who really worked, who stuck it out and didn't go home for the summer without first turning in their work: Terry Fulbright (freshmen and sports), Connie Hendrix (student life), Sue Elliott (juniors), Suzanne Carscaddon (organizations), Anne Steagall (features), Jane Little (seniors).

Thanks, too, to these folks who helped during the year: Phaedra Berry, KoKo Knight, Nikki Leach, Sarah Merrell, Kathy Reynolds, Mac Westbrook, Gary Williams, Kenneth Simmons, Camille Burgess, Lorraine Johnson, Claudia Jordan, Winnie McNeely, Wyn Anthony, John Dishman, Mary Ann Hill, Brenda Hogue, Barbara Roseboro, Esther Bruce.

And a final, but very special thanks to the photographers: Tom Alsop, Richard Bartholomew, Jack Heniford, Grodon Briscoe, Elaine Nichols, Charlie Hartis, Steve Wilcox, Mike Smith.

Thanks a bunch.

Melanie and Peggy
